

DIVISION OF STUDENT AFFAIRS

UNIVERSITY RECREATION & WELLNESS

Bouldering Zone Policies and Procedures

- All climbers must check in at the Bouldering Zone desk with a university ID or RecWell membership card and have a signed informed consent and release on file.
- While bouldering, at least one foot must stay below your hands at all times.
- No topping out and no climbing above or below other climbers.
- You may not be in the climbing area if you have received any medical treatment or are using any medication that could impair your alertness or coordination.
- All climbers must wear shoes that cover their entire foot while climbing. No Crocs.
- Appropriate attire must cover the chest and buttocks.
- Shoes are available to borrow for free.
- All equipment must be used according to manufacturer recommendations.
- Behaviors deemed unsafe by the Adventure Program Staff will not be allowed and can result in being asked to leave the premises.
- All injuries must be reported to the Adventure Program Staff.
- RecWell is not responsible for the personal belongings of patrons. Lockers are available in the ERC.
- The use of loose chalk is prohibited.
- Keep the floor clear. Personal belongings must be kept in cubbies or lockers.
- Dependent members and guests under 16 years of age are not permitted
- Dependent members and guests who are 16 or 17 years old may use the Bouldering Zone if they have a youth waiver signed by a Parent or Guardian.